The High Mountain Institute engages students with the natural world. Our school boldly unites rigorous intellectual inquiry, experiential learning, wilderness expeditions, and shared responsibility in a strong community. Our students realize their potential— as leaders, independent thinkers, and thoughtful citizens.
From the Director of Development

“You have helped so much in developing my son’s maturity and authentic connection to others, and the world. You gave him space for full self-expression and exploration while holding the community values and respect in place….If only ALL schools were like this then our world would be a radically different place. A place with compassion and care for humanity and our planet.”

We received the above message from an alumnus parent, Nadine Richardson, shortly after her son departed campus.

Authentic connection. Those two words speak straight to my heart—and to what I see here each day. Students connect to each other while they’re summiting peaks, while they’re washing dishes, and while they’re engaging in difficult conversation. They connect in rainstorms while huddled under a tent together, and while taking on challenges they previously thought impossible. They connect in real, face-to-face ways because this place demands nothing less. Authenticity becomes the default setting at HMI.

And it’s in this place of connection and community that students can safely and authentically observe who they are. They learn how to express themselves, what they need to be successful, and what it means to live their values.

When you make a donation to HMI—as so, so many of you have done—you support students in discovering their authentic selves. It is an investment that endures and continues to reach, exponentially, as our alumni practice compassion and care for humanity and our planet.

To everyone who contributed to our success this year, thank you. When this community comes together, we can achieve great things. When nature and minds meet, everything is possible.

With overwhelming gratitude,

Reed Holden

Breaking Down Barriers

WITH YOUR HELP

It is our goal to create an inclusive community where students are able to learn from each other and discover their best selves. In an effort to reduce barriers that could keep an exceptional student from this experience, HMI strives to meet the full financial need demonstrated by each student who is accepted into our school. Keeping HMI affordable for all families, however, is a collective effort. It is our incredible network of supporters whose contributions to the HMI Fund help to make our generous financial aid program possible. We are grateful to every donor who contributed this year—you play a tremendous role in our success!

FINANCIAL AID: COMMITTED TO MORE, EACH AND EVERY YEAR

Yet again HMI offered more financial aid this year than any other year. Since 2011, our financial aid budget has increased by over 100% in an effort to bring together a diverse group of students for every program. We devote over 20% of tuition revenue to financial aid, putting us in the upper quartile of independent schools across the nation.

HMI was possibly the greatest thing I have ever experienced. One thing that made the community great was all of the people. Every one of us had chosen to be there, although we were all in search of something different. At HMI everyone was supportive and encouraging, regardless of the situation. I learned new things about myself, gained new perspectives on the world around me, and made lifelong friends. I truly hope that everyone gets to experience something like HMI at least once in their lifetime. HMI is more than just a boarding school with outdoor trips; it’s a place for discovery, growth, and acceptance.

— 2015 Recipient of the HMI Alumni Scholarship

30
Two HMI Gap students who demonstrated commitment to service, a passion for addressing environmental concerns, and exceptional leadership received partial Civic Adventure Scholarships. Overall, 30% of HMI Gap students received need-based financial aid.
More Than Just Tuition

Because of you, HMI can cover the full cost of tuition for families who otherwise would not be able to attend HMI. However, sometimes this simply isn’t enough. A successful and robust HMI Fund also allows us to:

- Purchase flights for students so that the cost of traveling to Colorado does not prohibit a student from attending HMI or unduly burden their family.

- Provide either discounted or free-of-charge gear rentals, depending on the family’s circumstance.

- Support students in obtaining health insurance as necessary.

- Loan laptops to students who come to HMI without one.

- Buy flights for parents to attend Family Weekend. Cost can prevent some families from attending this important event, and we do not want finances to exclude students from sharing HMI with those they love.

- Cover the cost of hiking boots, which can be the most expensive—yet critical—piece of gear to acquire.

“I continue to refer back to HMI as a time of immense growth and learning both personally and professionally. I am grateful to use it as a reference point in my work in education, and to continue to benefit from its ever-growing community in my life.”
Imagine students walking to their advisor’s home for dinner. Imagine that our dedicated faculty and staff can spend more time with their families, while still doing the work that they love. Imagine mountain views from quality homes that signal our appreciation for the amazing individuals who make this place so special. Imagine creating a campus that we can call home.

In 2015 HMI announced that it had received the largest gift in its history—$500,000—to initiate the construction of on-campus housing for faculty and staff. From the very beginning, this project was a part of the founding vision Christopher and Molly Barnes had for HMI. Nearly two decades later, this vision is becoming realized thanks to the generosity of our community.

Danny O’Brien and his family moved into the new Head of School home on campus this past October, marking the completion of Phase I of our Campaign for Community. Now we eagerly turn our attention toward Phase II: we plan to break ground in the summer of 2018 to welcome the first round of faculty and staff onto campus. Phase III is slated for 2020 and will include an additional round of homes.

None of this would be possible, however, without the absolutely incredible support from donors who believe in this project as much as we do. Because of their dedication, the HMI mission is poised to be as strong as ever. It is also because of this dedication that we have proudly increased the campaign goal from $3 million to $4.5 million. This increase allows HMI to endow the maintenance of our housing, ensuring the school’s fiscal health and responsibility well into the future. We currently have $2.7 million committed to this project, leaving under half of this goal remaining.
Almost a year has passed since Ellie, Vivie, Henry, and I moved into the new Head of School home on the HMI campus. I think Vivie speaks for all of us (especially her brother, who is not yet verbal) when she breaks into her huge smile and proudly proclaims, “I live at HMI!”

Living on campus has been an undeniable win for my family. I can attend events on nights and weekends while still being there for bedtime or to help make lunch. It has increased my conviction that I have the best job in the world—being able to attend a square dance, sit with my advisees after dinner, or watch as HMI students help teach my kids how to play soccer connects me more than ever to a community as vibrant and fulfilling as any of which I have ever been part.

I also believe having a Head of School home on campus has been an undeniable win for HMI as well. Congregating as a community in the shadows of Mt. Elbert and Mt. Massive connects us more deeply to this special place. When I am having dinner with a job candidate or welcoming new faculty to campus, all I have to do is point out the window for my guests to begin to understand the magic about which I am excitedly talking.

Our new Head of School home has tightened the bonds of this already inspiring community. My family and I feel more connected to the faculty and students, and the home has become a nexus for connecting members of our community to each other. For this, and so much more that HMI offers us every single day, we are grateful.

― Danny O’Brien, Head of School
“My semester was 10 years ago (hard to believe!) and it's amazing how much it has shaped my life and the lives of others in my semester. I want other people to be able to experience HMI and let it change their lives, too.”
With sincere gratitude we list the following donors who have supported HMI this fiscal year by making gifts to the HMI Fund, Campaign for Community, or endowment. Through their generosity, support, and commitment to our school we continue to be the place where nature and minds meet.

This list reflects donations made to the High Mountain Institute between July 1, 2016 and June 30, 2017. We have made every effort to ensure that this list is complete and accurate. We apologize for any errors or omissions. Please contact Reed Holden with any corrections by calling 719-486-8200 x121 or emailing rholden@hminet.org

We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to every Semester and Summer Term alumni who participated in the 2016 Summit Challenge.

The response was staggering: for the first time in school history, we passed the 40% participation mark! Along the way, we raised over $45,000 towards three Alumni Scholarships for HMI students. Congratulations to Semester 36, who won the Challenge with a 98% participation rate! This school, and our financial aid program in particular, has a bright future with such thoughtful and supportive alumni. Thank you!

ALUMNI COMMUNITY:
Thank you Cameron, and Welcome Barrett!

In 2012 Cameron Deamer-Phillips returned to HMI (he was a student in Semester 16!) as the school’s first-ever Alumni Associate. Now, five years later, our alumni community is richer than ever and has benefited in ways large and small from Cameron’s dedication and passion. Most notably, Cameron took HMI’s alumni giving program from 8% participation to over 40% and raised record-breaking amounts year after year. We all wish Cameron well in his next adventure, and extend our sincerest gratitude for the incredible mark he left on HMI.

Stepping in to lead our alumni community is Barrett Donovan. Barrett was a student in Semester 26, has worked for two Summer Terms, and was an apprentice in Semester 37. Please join us in welcoming Barrett back to HMI!

The Lake County Backpacking Trip celebrated its eight successful summer of taking local middle school students out to explore their backyard. Students hiked, camped, forged new friendships, and learned about the natural world surrounding them. Thank you to the Kayne Foundation for their ongoing support, and thank you to Full Circle of Lake County and the Lake County School District for their partnership. We are so grateful for our community.
